UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—Remaining in the Owingsville postoffice March 1, 1900, 100 pieces of mail addressed to the bride, father, on Flat Creek, Miss Lucy F. Bigstaff, daughter of Dick F. Bigstaff, to A. R. Talbott, of near Owingsville, and to Mrs. J. C. H. Tandy, of Owingsville, officiating.

After the ceremony a elegant dinner was given to the fifty friends of the couple and their parents. Immediately after the luncheon the bridal party started for the elegant residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. H. Tandy, a very sick man, but was some better Tuesday afternoon.

C. W. Housker, Jr., was confined to his home with a severe case of rheumatism.

"Rod" Brother can sell you your Cook Stoves, Dishes, Woodware, and in fact everything to set up housekeeping except the furniture.

Spring is liable to break out any day now.

Oliver Floss Points at the old price. Vulcan and Brinley Plow cheap.

E. C. TAYLOR, Dealer, located at 206 W. Richard's store, Office 8 to 12 a. m.; 1 to 5 p. m.

In looking for a plow don't pass the "P. & O." Chil and Avery. Sold by "Rod" Brother.

The wind was very heavy Tuesday morning.

READ.—In order to make room for a lot of new rugugges coming in April, for the month of April will be a brand new Top Buggy for $25; a full leather Topone for $50.

T. S. SOUTON.

If you have never had the pleasure of talking with Mr. Brown, call him at his office and make out to see him. Price low.

G. W. CONNER.

Brother still has the agency for the best Laundry in the U. S. He also has an agency to press and renew clothes. What is not made out there can't be made out here.

A. N. Denton has bought an interest in the furniture and undertaking business of Paxton & Son. He will be glad to have his friends call on him.

In breaking old and stuble we offer the Avery Steel. For odd our "P. & O." Chill surpasses any shape.

Why is it that one of the 92 J. S. Brown sold in the fall of 1899 for $260 when so many horses breed by other stallions sold for less than $100? Simply because J. S. Brown is the one in size, style and shape.

D. G. W. CONNER.

Chairman Huff will call the 9th district Republicans Committee to meet Saturday at 10 a. m. and select a time and place for holding the Congressional convention.

The Steam Oliver Chilled Plow will do the work in any kind of land.

L. OUTLOOK
UBLISHING CO.,
OW- ILL., - - KY.
$1 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Appellate Judge.
To the Honorable Appellate District of Kentucky.
I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this district, subject to your action.
Elisha N. Bryan,
Rep., Ed C. O'Rear.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1900.

The Ky. Leg. session will expire by law next Tuesday. Every little helps.

Everyone now has legal predicts for almost any old sort of plaints.

Too many accept as true the saying that "politics is hell" and "act like the devil" when they go into it.

Oppose the Goebels were Republicans and acted just as they are doing what you think about matters and things then?

Some of the trusts are having rough traveling. The flour trust went to pieces. The sugar trust's stock went down to 82 cents a week.

Uncle Sam holds Portautainer with a protective tariff law with a protective tariff law the old fellow ought to be ashamed of himself.

Even ex-President Benjamin Harrison is quoted as saying the Porto Rico tariff bill is "a most serious departure from the right principles."

It is said that, in the opinion of lawyers, the litigation to settle the Governorship will not be ended before the end of April at the earliest, and maybe not until June 1.

Atmospheric political question in Kentucky will influence until the right men and have that vote counted as established.
Which shall be—fremen or political slaves?

John Young Brown says the leading lawyers in the state are still opposed to the bill and will oppose any ticket nominated on that platform, and he will stamp the State against it.

"The great common people" have no political right as important as that of soldiers, and you are told to be the fruits of that in value right all of the great common people" who don't uphold Gobbel.

Jo Blackburn and Henry Watters, amazingly enough, support the repeal or amendment of the Election law, if they are in earnest they haven't much influence with the Goebel legislators in that respect.

A new trouble has arisen in the Philippines, quite as bad as the soldiers there may make it necessary to withdraw them and send a fresh army to take their place. The new republic can gross to authorize a new volunteer army.

CONGRESSMAN AL BERRY, of Kentucky, made a hit by saying in the debate on the Porto Rico tariff bill that the bill would be the tariff at 15 instead of 25 percent, proposed price instead of grand array against the people of Porto Rico.

The people of Kentucky defended the city of Louisville and the counties of Johnson, Magoffin and Marion simply because they voted against the Goebel ticket, the Goebelites had no more influence than the Goebelites themselves in Louisville and in the mountain counties.

Who doubts for an instant that the Goebelites would have usurped the power of the people if Gobbel had not assumed and troops in Louisville on election day and the ballots everywhere had been printed paper as thick and spun out as possible? If so, why do you doubt it?

The Indiana Republicans, from Gen. Ed. Harrison and Gen. Lew Wallace, are up in arms against the application of the protectionist tax bill to Porto Rico.
They are the people. Gobbel aided, owned by the closest friend McKinley has next to Hanna, say it will jeopardize McKinley's election year.

The politicians dance, but the people pay. The two greatest losses here in the Legislature will cost about $40,000, it is estimated. Whenever any necessity is done, you may be sure that the most was done for the sake of the taxpayers, including "the great common people."

With promises to you for two or three years, the number of offices to be filled there, I help to a balance and vicious times when the Goebel leaders distribute the spoils at Frankfort. The feelings that can do it are there. The killing and traces of the will get the job, and the others will get beautifully left.

Jo Blackman is quoted as saying in Washington that the Goebel law cost his party 20,000 votes and didn't get it in. It's true.
Harrison and the people did it, and again and again that the L. & N. railroad did it by beriberi and the railroad did it and the L. & N. did it by the soldiers did it? Astounding! The Goebel law did it! Well, well!
Live and learn.

A mass meeting of some two thousand people was held at Louisville Monday to condemn the course of the Goebelites in throwing out the Porto Rico bill. Most of both parties participated, many of them being regular Democrats, who protested against the city being disfranchised.

over. There's going to be some fun for the lookers, and Bryan will get a jolt if he doesn't have Goebel and pinged.

The only Dick Oliver is a boy for politics, and he is a good one.
